

1. Masters in Public Health	2
2. Health Protection Masters	4
3. Health Related Masters	5
4. First Degree Public Health	13
5. First Degree Health Related	14
6. Bachelor of Medicine and Surgery	18
7. Doctorate Health related	18
8. Post Graduate Diploma and Certificate	19
9. Under Graduate Diploma and Certificate	23
10. Short Courses Health Related	25

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Masters in Public Health

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
Health Sciences (Public Health)	MPH /Masters	Warwick University	Public Health Specialists. Graduates of health related courses, or equivalent qualifications interested in developing public health expertise	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Epidemiology and statistics • Practice of Public Health • Sociology of Health, health policy and social determinants of health • Issues in public health 	Week on site modules			Students usually also take Research methodology and Critical appraisal as their fifth module but can take any of them
Public Health MPH	MPH/Dip /Cert	Birmingham University	Graduates in Medicine, Dentistry or any other subject of relevance to public health, or a relevant professional qualification (for example, RGN) or diploma. Successful applicants usually have experience of working in a public health-related field.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Epidemiology, Statistics and Health Information (30 credits) • Health Promotion and Disease Prevention (10 credits) • Health Care Evaluation and Needs Assessment (10 credits) ❖ Communicable Disease ❖ Environment and Health ❖ Advanced Statistical Methods ❖ Advanced Applied Epidemiology ❖ Public Health Management ❖ Oral Health and Dental Services ❖ Sociology and Social Policy ❖ Health Economics ❖ Public Health Practice Public Health in Developing Countries 	Full-time, part-time or over up to six years by flexible learning			❖ Option modules
Public Health Nutrition	Masters Degree	Coventry	PH specialists & Nutritionists	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Nutritional Sciences, • Social Sciences, • Genetics, • Epidemiology 	Full-time and Part-time First validation 2007/08	20	1 st enrolment 2008	Multi-disciplinary

NB: Validation date where given is in “course format” column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
Public Health	MPH 180	Stafford	Public Health Specialists in Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Public Health Principles & Practice • Principles of Epidemiology • Disease causation, prevention & Control • Health Services policy & evaluation, • Communicable Disease • Working with Communities • Health Promotion • Research critical appraisal & Project Management • Physical Activity for Public Health • Physical Activity Interventions for Population Health 	E-Distance learning		100	stand alone modules (15 credits)
Public Health for Nursing	MSc 180	Stafford	Public Health Nurses	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Public Health Nursing Practice (30) • Health Promotion and planning (15) • Working with communities (15) • Leadership in SCPHN (15) • Research in SCPHN (15) • Optional modules route specific 	face to face		10	stand alone modules (15 credits)
Physical Activity for Public Health	MSc 180	Stafford	Physical activity specialists		E-Distance learning		27	ditto

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Health Protection Masters

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
Health Protection	MSc/Diploma/Certificate	Birmingham	Those with or without medical qualifications working in the public health field	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Epidemiology, Statistics and Health Information (30 credits) • Public Health Practice (10 credits) • Communicable Disease (20 credits), • Environment and Health (20 credits) ❖ Emergency Planning Preparedness and Response ❖ Public Health Management ❖ Public Health Microbiology ❖ International Health Protection ❖ Occupational Toxicology ❖ The Law, Ethics and Health Protection ❖ Advanced Statistical Methods 				❖ Option modules
Science of Occupational Health, Safety and the Environment	MSc/Diploma	Birmingham		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Safety Technology ❖ Risk and Safety Management ❖ Occupational Health and Hygiene ❖ Air Pollution ❖ Environmental Noise ❖ Health and Safety Management of Chemical and Biological Incidents 				❖ 3 options from list + core module

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Health Related Masters

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
MSc Health Studies	Postgraduate Masters Degree	Coventry	Varied	Public Health Module	Full-time or Part-time Revalidation May 2007	20-30	15	Generic health studies coverage
- Child Health - Health Sciences (Child Health) -International Child Health	MSc	Warwick	Paediatricians in training. Any graduate of child health related subject or with equivalent qualification	Social and environmental determinants of health Health protection promotion and prevention Child Protection child law and adolescent health Communicable disease and immunisations Child health services: management, organisation and data systems	week on site modules
Community Gynaecology	MSc	Warwick	Any person employed in the health care sector, particularly specialist registrars and career-grade trainees, community doctors, general practitioners and nurse specialists.	Reproductive health in the community Public health and women's health The menopause and beyond Infections and women's health	4 day modules			2 x 1000 word essays and a 4000 word assignment
Generic Research Modules	MSc level	Warwick	Any of the above		one week intensive modules			prior reading and 4000 word assessed assignment at the end
-Health services Management -Health Sciences (Health Services Management)	MSc	Warwick	Geared towards the needs of professionals working within health care whose management responsibilities may range from managing themselves, a team, a practice, a department or a locality. this course should appeal to all clinicians and social care professionals who have managerial responsibilities		5 intensive days modules			-assessment by 4000 word assignment - Designed by Warwick Medical School in collaboration with the internationally acclaimed Warwick Business School,

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
PG Dip/MSc Health Development	Level 7	UCE	Health Promotion Specialists, primary care staff, other health workers.	Social determinants / health information / management / research / applied Health Promotion/ Public Health.	P/T Attendance at Perry Barr one day per week. 18 months to PG Dip. A further min 12 months for MSc. Revalidation 2007
Health Psychology	MSc	Aston	Psychology Graduates who want to practice as Health Psychologists	Professional training in Health Psychology	6 x 20 credit modules and a 60 credit dissertation			BPS accredited as providing stage 1 Professional Training in Health Psychology
Pharmacy	MPharm degree	Aston	People with Chemistry A level and one from Biology, Maths or Physics	Pharmaceutical Microbiology, Social Pharmacy, Health and Lifestyle, Professional practice (includes smoking cessation, appropriate nutrition, BP and lipid monitoring)	4 year course taught in modules			Close links with local hospitals, community pharmacies, GP surgeries and pharmaceutical companies
MPharm	Undergraduate 4 years	Keele	A level students	Introduction to Pharmacy Practice, Pharmaceutical Microbiology, Evidence based medicine, Pharmaceutical Care and the patient, Pharmaceutical care and therapeutics Public Health and health promotion, current development in pharmacy and health care. Pharmaceutical care and prescribing	Full time Lectures, Seminars, tutorials, PBL	90
MSc / Postgraduate Diploma/Certificate Nursing Studies	Postgraduate 3 years part time/modular	Keele	First level professional nurse (registered)	Modules Health & social policy, Diversity in health care.	Part time / modular

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
MSc / Postgraduate Diploma/Certificate Clinical Practice	Postgraduate 3 years part time/modular	Keele	First level health care professional (registered)	Modules Health & social policy, Diversity in health care.	Part time / modular
MSc / Postgraduate Diploma/Certificate Critical Care	Postgraduate Three years part time/modular	Keele	First level health care professionals (registered)	Modules Health & social policy, Diversity in health care.	Part time / modular
MSc Neuro Musculoskeletal Healthcare	Postgraduate F/T 16 months or P/T 2-5 years	Keele	Allied Health Professionals	Modules Statistics & epidemiology, Mental Health Sciences for the non-psychiatrist.	Full Time / Part time
MSc / PG Diploma Biomedical Engineering	Postgraduate	Keele		Option Modules Healthcare informatics, Healthcare technology assessment.	Full time / Part time
MSc / Postgraduate Diploma Cell and Tissue Engineering	Postgraduate	Keele		Option Modules Healthcare informatics, Healthcare technology assessment.	Full time / Part time
MSc / Postgraduate Diploma/Certificate / Short course Adolescent addiction studies	Postgraduate	Keele	Professionals / organisations concerned with adolescent addiction	Modules Substance related disorders in young people, Epidemiology, aetiology and pathways to substance misuse in young people, Service Provision & planning.	Part time	10
MSc / Postgraduate Diploma/Certificate Psychiatry & mental health	Postgraduate	Keele		Modules Substance misuse, Learning disability, Social & rehabilitation Psychiatry, Psychiatry of old age.	Part time One study day per week

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
MSc / PostG Diploma Geriatric Medicine	Postgraduate	Keele	Medical Practitioners and non medical entrants	Focus is to develop critical awareness of the health needs of older people, way services are developed & delivered.	Part time	12
MMedSci, / Postgraduate Diploma/Certificate Medical Science	Postgraduate	Keele	Those currently in medical practice	Modules Management of patients with chronic diseases in primary care, Statistics & epidemiology, Interface between Primary & Secondary Care, Health Informatics.	Part time
MSc / Postgraduate Diploma Rheumatology Nursing	Postgraduate	Keele	Registered Nurses with experience of rheumatological disorders	Year 2 module Psychological and social aspects of care in rheumatological practice.	Part time	12 - 14
MSC / Postgraduate Diploma/Certificate Nursing studies	Postgraduate	Keele	First level Professional Nurse Registration	Modules Health & social policy, Clinical management, Diversity in healthcare	Part time
MBA/Post Graduate Diploma Health population and nutrition in developing countries	Postgraduate One year	Keele	Professionals working in the health sectors of transitional economies / developing countries	Modules Health planning & management, Health information and management science, Marketing and community participation in health.	Full time
MSC / Post Graduate Diploma Human Resources in Health	Postgraduate One year	Keele		Module Health planning & management.		Full Time

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
MSc / Postgraduate Diploma Reproductive Health Management	Postgraduate One year	Keele		Modules Health/population planning & management, health economics and financial management, reproductive health management, health information, education and communication strategies		Full time / Part time		Provide specialist knowledge in current reproductive and sexual health activities/trends
MA / Post Graduate Diploma Gerontology	Postgraduate	Keele	Experienced professionals from health & social services backgrounds	Modules Policies and practices for an ageing population, Cross cultural perspectives in ageing, Contemporary perspectives in social gerontology	Part time			Draws on a number of disciplines to provide a well rounded understanding of older people.
MBA Health Executive	Postgraduate 3 years	Keele	Senior managers, policy makes and health care professionals	Modules Health policy & strategy, Comparative healthcare, Operations management	Part time	15 - 20
MA / Postgraduate Diploma Medical Ethics & Law	Postgraduate 2 years PT or 1 year FT	Keele	Healthcare professionals / those working in fields related to healthcare	Modules Introduction to moral and legal concepts; Autonomy and paternalism; life and death; Public health	Full time / Part time			Designed to fit in with full time work. 4 X three-day teaching blocks in first year. Individual supervision in second (dissertation) year.
MA / Postgraduate Diploma Ethics of cancer and palliative care	Postgraduate 2 years PT or 1 year FT	Keele	Healthcare professionals / those working in fields related to cancer or palliative care	Modules Ethics & palliative care, Autonomy and paternalism and consent, Quality of life, Death & dying, Contemporary issues in the ethics of cancer and palliative care.	Full time/ Part time			Designed to fit in with full time work 4 X three-day teaching blocks in first year. Individual supervision in second (dissertation) year.
MA / Postgraduate Diploma in Research Ethics	Postgraduate 2 years PT or 1 year FT	Keele	Those with a professional or other serious issue in research ethics, and in particular members and administrators of research ethics committees, and research ethics advisors.	Modules Introduction to Ethical Theory and Research Ethics; Autonomy, Consent and Research; Ethics and Research Trials; Ethics and Different Research Methodologies	Web-based distance learning course. May be taken part time or full time.			Web based delivery is compatible with full time work. Students only required to attend Keele for one day per year.

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
PG Certificate in Applied Nutrition for Professional Practice	Post Graduate One year	Worcester	People in professional practice wishing to add nutrition and dietary advice to their business model, e.g. dentists, physiotherapists, GPs, chiropractors, audiologists, opticians, etc.	Applied Nutrition for Healthy People Functional Biochemistry of Nutrition Applied Nutrition and Symptom Modulation	Part time	25	10	Allows specialist healthcare professionals to add nutrition and dietary advice to their portfolio of skills
MSc Nutritional Therapy	Postgraduate ; 2 years minimum	Worcester	Good honours graduates with an appropriate first degree (e.g. biological sciences, nutrition); healthcare practitioners	Diet Therapy Nutritional Therapy Functional Medicine Research	Part time		34	First postgraduate course in Nutritional Therapy in UK
MSc Advanced Health and Social Care (Public Health Award) PG Cert/PG Diploma (Public Health Award)	Postgraduate 2 years minimum	Worcester	These awards are open to professionals and non-professionals, practitioners and non-practitioners. Applicants should hold an honours degree preferably in a subject associated with health or social care or social welfare. Some optional modules may hold specific entry criteria, especially if they are associated with awards from a regulatory body such as the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) or the Health Professions Council (HPC). Students with non traditional qualifications will have an informal interview to learn more about expectations and prospects on this course.	Public Health Award Specific Modules Exploring Public Health through Evidence Public Health in a Global Context Ethics of Public Health Individual Project Management Advanced Clinical Practice Award includes; Advanced Adult Health Assessment (Double Module) Non-Medical Prescribing (Double Module) Teacher Award includes; (under review) For Nurses and Midwives this leads to a recordable qualification with the NMC. Women's Health Award includes; Women's Health in the 21 st Century Women and Public Health	Full time Part Time	25		The flexible modular scheme means you can maximize your continuing professional development at your own pace; Opportunities to design a personally focused course to meet individual needs and interests, including negotiated learning modules where you choose your own subject; Inter-disciplinary learning groups means you can share, debate and explore ideas with students who offer differing work perspectives;

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
				Mental Health Award includes: Advancing Recovery Based Principles in Mental Health Developing Interventions in Mental Illness Social Welfare Award includes: Joint Working, Partnership and Collaboration Service Users and Carers in Health and Welfare Implementing Health and Welfare Policy Ideological Perspectives and Welfare Sport and Exercise Medicine Award includes: Fundamentals of Sports Medicine Leading and Managing Award includes Managing Change and Innovation (Mandatory for named award) Leading and Managing (Mandatory for named award) Financial Management Human Resource Management Dynamics of Domestic Violence Award includes: Theoretical Perspectives on Gender and Violence The Cost of Domestic Violence Recognitions and Response				Supportive and friendly staff with work based and academic expertise in a variety of health, social care and welfare backgrounds; The application of social theory to public health skills and practice.

NB: Validation date where given is in “course format” column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
				Changing Health Behaviours Award includes: Assessing and Measuring Lifestyle Changing Lifestyle (groups) Changing Lifestyle (individuals) We also offer modules in; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sexual Health • Strategic Developments in Health Care • Anticoagulation in Primary Care • Multidisciplinary Diabetes Care • Neonatal Health Assessment (Double Module) • Negotiated Learning Further developments include; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Work-based Learning • Palliative Care • Tissue Viability • Complementary Therapies

NB: Validation date where given is in “course format” column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

First Degree Public Health

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
BSc(Hons Public Health	1-3	Wolverhampton	Students preparing for public health professions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Effective communication for health • Health needs assessment, • Health inequalities, • Environmental effects on health : upgrade to level Approaches to Poverty and social exclusion, • Promoting public health, Developing healthier communities, • Tackling Health inequalities 	In process of being validated, due to start Sept 2007			The competencies of Public Health Skills for Health are incorporated into the course, as well as the Nursing and Midwifery council Public Health Standards and Competencies.
BSc (Hons) Public Health	Undergrad	Worcester	Undergraduate students aspiring for a career in public health	The course comprises three years of study which introduces public health as a scientific discipline.	Modular, part or full time study over three-six years. Validation Spring 2007	20-30 per annum
BSc (Hons) Specialist Community Public Health Nurse programme	Level 6	UCE	Health Visiting School Nursing	To demonstrate the NMC standards of proficiency 10 key areas of public health	Full time and part time Practice and theory run concurrently Re-validation 2011		7 school nurses 17 health visitors	Inter professional Learning, Collaboration User involvement

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

First Degree Health Related

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
BSc Health & Lifestyle Management	Undergraduate	Coventry	Both school leavers and mature students	Health Psychology, Health Behaviours, Public Health	Full-time 1 st approval May 2006 next review May 2011	30	1 st enrolment 2007	Inter-disciplinary combination
BSc Hons Health Studies (Health Development)	Level 6	UCE	General health workers	2 years general 'Health Studies', final year specialising in health development	F/T and P/T options. Study with some element of placements. Validation 2009
BSc Health and Wellbeing	Undergrad	Worcester	PH Wider Workforce	Conceptualising Health. Public Health. Health Improvement. Bio-Psycho-Social Framework. Mental Health, Complementary Therapies, Research methods.		30	1st Enrollment Sept 2007
BSc Health and Complementary Therapies (Top-Up)	Undergrad	Worcester	Complementary Therapists	Research methods. Evidence Based Complementary Therapies. Social Dimensions of Complementary Therapy Practice. Counselling Theory and Practice. Specialist Optional Modules from BSc Health and Well-Being Menu		15
Biology Programmes	UG	Aston	People must have a Biological Subject at A level	Microbial pathogenesis, Food safety and hygiene, Food Microbiology, anti-microbial agents, Biological basis of mental health, Clinical microbiology and infectious disease	Degree course taught in modules 4 year course is inclusive of a placement			Can specialise and get BSc Infection and Immunity/ BSc Human Biology BSc Applied & Human Biology or BSc Cell & Molecular Biology
Biomedical Science	UG	Aston	Must have an A level in a Biological Sciences subject	The following topics are studied: Bacteriology, Parasitology & Virology, Mycology, Microbiology and infectious disease, microbial pathogenesis	Degree course taught in modules 4 year degree is inclusive of a clinical placement			Accredited by the IBMS
Optometry	UG	Aston	People with Biology A level and maths or Physics	Posterior eye conditions, Anterior eye conditions, Binocular vision, Low vision and Paediatrics, Ophthalmic drugs, Clinical practice, Abnormal systemic conditions	3 year degree course taught in modules

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
Psychology	UG	Aston	People with A level Science subjects	Clinical Psychology & Health Psychology	Taught in modules 4 year course has an integrated year with professional experience			Confers eligibility for Graduate Basis for Registration by the BPS
BSc (Hons) Physiotherapy	Undergraduate 3 years	Keele	A level students	First year module Exercise in health, Health.	Full time Lectures, Seminars, tutorials, PBL	80
BA (Hons) Specialist Nursing Practice (Adult)	Undergraduate 2-3 year pathways	Keele	Registered Nurses	Specialist Modules Cancer care, Care of older persons, Ophthalmology, Palliative care nursing.	One study day per week plus clinical practice	30
BA (Hons) Specialist Nursing Practice (Community Mental Health)	Undergraduate 2-3 year pathways	Keele	Registered Nurses	Specialist Modules Health assessment in mental health, Substance misuse.	One study day per week plus clinical practice	13		Critically appraise role of specialist practitioner in relation to health promotion in primary and secondary care settings
BSc (Hons) Psychology	Undergraduate	Keele		Topics Social psychology, Educational psychology, Psychology, health and social action.		200
BSc (Hons) Biomedical Sciences	Undergraduate 3 or 4 years	Keele		Option Modules Case Studies in Biomedical Sciences Professional Relationships.	Full time	50
BSc (Hons) Nutrition	Undergraduate 3 years	Worcester	Students wanting to specialise in nutrition with a view to future career	Conceptualising Health Human Nutrition and Energy Balance Composition of Foods and Dietary Analysis Dietary Models Food Safety Work Experience Physiology of Human Digestion Cardio-respiratory Physiology Nutrition Through the Life Cycle Public Health Nutrition Human Nutrition and Disease Prevention Trends in Food Supply Dissertations in Nutrition	Full time and part time	25		Specifically includes aspects of social nutrition; builds the foundation for specific further postgraduate study

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
BM Mid (Hons)	Undergraduate 3 years	Keele	A level students / access to HE students and graduates	Health assessment in pregnancy and puerperium. Maternal, fetal and neonatal screening. Role of midwife in public health. STI's and contact tracing. Substance misuse. Domestic violence. Perinatal mental health assessment . Health policy.		10
BSc Nursing	Undergraduate 3 Years	Keele	A level students / access to HE students and graduates	Year One 3 modules incorporating the following elements: Wider determinants of Health Health Policy Infection Control Introduction to epidemiology Health Choices, Health Promotion Year Two 3 modules incorporating: Psychosocial factors influencing health Demography Health Promotion Infection Control Year Three 3 modules incorporating Public Health Inequalities Epidemiology Health Promotion Year Two 3 modules incorporating : Health Trends: risk assessment Infection control Common Assessment Framework Communication with users. Year Three 3 modules incorporating: Health Policy Health Education and Promotion School Health Profiling and Public Health Risk taking behaviours and prevention strategies
Adult Branch			→
Child Branch			→

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
Learning Disability			→	Year Two Health facilitation, health promotion, health surveillance Models of health promotion and education Health needs in the lifecycle Year Three Health Screening Communication with Service Users
Mental Health			→	Year Two Module Social Inequality, interpersonal relationships and the Family Year Three Modules Community and neighbourhood as a focus for Mental Health. Promotion and Illness Prevention Person focused Mental Health Promotion and Illness Prevention. Social Disintegration and Mental Health

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Bachelor of Medicine and Surgery

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
MBCHB (Hons) Medicine	Undergraduate 5 Years	Keele	A level students	Phase 1, Year 1 Module 1, Level 1 Infection & immunity, Cancer, Ageing, Lifestyle. Phase 2, Year 2, Module 2, Level 2 Infection and immunity, Nutrition & metabolism. Phase 2, Year 4, Module 4, Level 3 General Adult Health 1 & 2, Mental health, Women's health, Men's health, Child health. Phase 3, Year 5, Module 5, level 3 Medicine in the community.	Full Time Lectures, problem based learning (PBL)	130

Doctorate Health related

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
Professional Doctorate/MRes in Medical Ethics	Postgraduate/PGR MRes: 1 year FT or 3 years PT; DMedEth: 4-7 years	.Keele	Healthcare professionals with a Masters degree in ethics or a related subject.	Taught modules provide research training in Medical Ethics. Students may write their dissertation/thesis on a public health topic.	MRres: Part time / full time. DMedEth: Part time			Designed to fit in with full-time work. 3 x three-day teaching blocks in each of first two years (Part I). Individual supervision in Part II.

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Post Graduate Diploma and Certificate

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
PG Cert Public Health	Postgraduate Certificate	Coventry	Post Experience	2 Public Health Modules + work-based learning	Part-time Validation May 2007	10	1 st enrolment 2007	Practice orientation
Occupational Health	Certificate and Diploma	Warwick	Occupational health advisers who work in the NHS or any other public, private or voluntary health care environment. They are particularly relevant to nurses who work within teams offering occupational health and safety programmes in the workplace and will also suit health and safety professionals who are members of an occupational health and safety team.		4 one week modules 3000 word assignment for each build to certificate 4 one week modules and 4000 word assignment build to diploma			Stand alone modules in Occupation health policy and legislation Occupation health practice Safety and Hygiene (Occupational) Health Management
Modules relevant to public health	MB BCh	Warwick	Graduates in biology or related subject	Health and Disease in Community Human Diversity Lifespan Health Care Evaluation policy and Provision	Each course x 12 half days in one term			Each module is examined
HL3032: Health Promotion: Foundations for Practice	3 Sept-Jan 13 weeks	Wolverhampton	Bsc Health Studies (u/g and Top-up) All Health professionals	Assessing health needs, planning a health promotion strategy to fit in with current policy and research	Lectures, discussions, TSL Validation 2002		25-30	Health professionals can focus on their own area of practice
HL3033 Health promotion: Rhetoric to Reality	3 13 weeks semester two	Wolverhampton		Policy. evidence based practice, cost-effectiveness Managing change	Lectures, group discussion, case studies, TSL Validation 2002		15-20	Focus on identifying obstacles to implementing theory, policy and research. Can focus on own area of practice
HL3026 Issues in Public Health	3 13 weeks Semester one	Wolverhampton	Specialist practice, health professionals	Public health role and skills, Tackling health inequalities, epidemiology, public health promotion	Ditto Validation 2003		50-90	Evaluate the specific public health role, skills and practice relevant to own area of work.

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
HL3307 Women's health	3 13 weeks Semester one	Wolverhampton	All health professionals	Public Health, screening, promoting women/s health	Ditto		25 -30	Explores social determinants of women's health and prepares a report to address a relevant issue.
HL3068 World Health	3 13 weeks semester two	Wolverhampton	Health professionals	Global health inequalities, migration, culture, conflict and health, epidemics,.	"" "" Validation 2005		15-20	Facilitates understanding of impact of globalisation on health both in UK and worldwide, and identifies examples of good practice in promoting health
BSc(Hons) Health Studies Top-up	3 1 year full time, 2 years part-time	Wolverhampton	Diploma level health professionals	Public health promotion, ethics, leadership, trans-cultural health issues	8 modules of 150 credits Validation 2002	12	12	Builds the capacity and capability of the workforce Enables health professionals to combine study with practice, and develop skills and knowledge to lead the public health agenda in a variety of settings.
BSc(Hons) Public Health (Top-up)	3 1 year full time, 2 years part-time	Wolverhampton	Health professionals	Epidemiology, Promoting Public health Developing healthier communities World health Tackling Health inequalities	8 level three 15 credit modules In process of being validated	10		The competencies of PH Skills for Health are incorporated into the course, as well as the Nursing and Midwifery council PH Standards and Competencies.
Clinical Community Pharmacy	PG	Aston	Those wishing to promote Clinical Services in Community Pharmacy	Medicines Management, OTC Consultancy, This programme addresses extended pharmaceutical services which include provision of specialist clinics e.g. for diabetes etc. Also includes the aspects of public health associated with modifiable behaviour promoted In the community.	Flexible modular programme Learn about OTC products including herbal and nutritional supplements, Also Learn to give advice on rational prescribing and evidence-based treatment of diseases			Currently Paper – based Distance learning modules but from October 2007 will be available by e-learning

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
Postgraduate Certificate in Public Health Community Pharmacy	Postgraduate (M Level) 9 months	Keele	Pharmacists working in community practice or primary care	60 credit module in 3 study units: -Communication and Consultation Skills -Clinical Pharmacy for Medicines Management -Promoting Health through Community Pharmacy. N/A	Part time, distance learning, including online group workshops. Also 2 days face-to-face workshops		~ 15-20 per annum	Part time, distance learning, including online group workshops.
Promoting Health through Community Pharmacy	Postgraduate (M Level) Up to 6 months from start date	.Keele	Pharmacists working in community practice or primary care	Stand-alone 10 credit fixed content/learning outcomes module within our Pharmacy CPD Plus ⁺ course portfolio. N/A	Short course. Part time, distance learning, including online group workshops.		Varies due to flexible start dates.	Part time, distance learning, including online group workshops. Multiple start dates.
CPD Plus ⁺ Open Learn (Promoting Health)	Postgraduate (M Level) Up to 6 months from start date	.Keele	Practising health professionals who have studied to at least undergraduate degree level, or who have at least 5 years experience of practising in their field.	Stand-alone 5, 15 or 30 credit negotiated learning outcomes module within our Pharmacy CPD Plus ⁺ Open Learn course portfolio. N/A	Short course. Part time, distance learning. Some online learning and/or face-to-face workshops may be included depending on the agreed learning outcomes		New from September 2007.	Part-time. Options for credit rating. Negotiated learning outcomes. Distance learning. Flexible start dates.
Postgraduate Certificate, Diploma, Masters in Advanced Professional Practice	Postgraduate	Keele	Practising Health Professionals	Tailored programme to suit individuals learning needs. Can incorporate relevant PG modules offered by the University, including CPD Plus ⁺ Open Learn modules (see above).
National Prescribing Centre (NPC) and NPCi	Postgraduate	Keele	Practising Health Professionals, Health Service Commissioners, Healthcare Providers	A wide range of face to face and e-learning resources in the areas of prescribing, medicines policy, medicines management, implementation. Can be incorporated into tailored academic programmes hosted by Keele through the Open Learn programme.	Face to face programmes and e-learning material may be incorporated depending on the agreed learning outcomes			User friendly and comprehensive learning portal containing a wide range of high quality free and subsidised learning materials.

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
NPC Plus (National Prescribing Centre and Keele collaboration)	Postgraduate	Keele	Practising Health professionals	Bespoke courses as required. Drawing on NPC and Keele materials and expertise. Developed and hosted by Keele through the Open Learn programme N/A	Short course. Part time, distance learning. Some online learning and/or face-to-face workshops may be included depending on the agreed learning outcomes			Arrangements are in place for Keele to develop and host bespoke courses through the Open Learn programme
Postgraduate Diploma Health Services Management	Postgraduate	Keele		Modules Health policy & strategy, Operations management, Contemporary policy development processes, Health needs assessment, Primary care, Health inequalities.	Part time	5 - 10
LLM Postgraduate Diploma Gender, sexuality and human rights	Postgraduate	Keele	Anyone working in related fields eg health, social services.	Module Health and social welfare	Part time
Postgraduate Certificate Changing Health Behaviours	Postgraduate	Worcester		Module Assessing and Measuring Lifestyle Changing Lifestyle (groups) Changing Lifestyle (individuals)	Part -Time	15		Flexible modular award which may lead to progression to Masters in Advanced Health and Social Care

NB: Validation date where given is in “course format” column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Under Graduate Diploma and Certificate

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
Diploma HE Nursing Adult Branch	Undergraduate 3 year	Keele	A level students / access to HE students and graduates	Year One 3 modules incorporating the following elements: Wider determinants of Health Health Policy Infection Control Introduction to epidemiology Health Choices, Health Promotion
				Year Two 3 modules incorporating: Psychosocial factors influencing health Demography Health Promotion Infection Control
				Year Three 3 modules incorporating Public Health Inequalities Epidemiology Health Promotion
Child Branch				Year Two 3 modules incorporating : Health Trends: risk assessment Infection control Common Assessment Framework Communication with users.
Learning Disability				Year Three 3 modules incorporating: Health Policy Health Education and Promotion School Health Profiling and Public Health Risk taking behaviours and prevention strategies Year Two Health facilitation, health promotion, health surveillance Models of health promotion and education Health needs in the lifecycle Year Three Health Screening Communication with Service Users

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
Mental Health			→	Year Two Module Social Inequality, interpersonal relationships and the Family Year Three Modules Community and neighbourhood as a focus for Mental Health. Promotion and Illness Prevention Person focused Mental Health Promotion and Illness Prevention. Social Disintegration and Mental Health
Diploma (HE) Operating Department Practitioner	Undergraduate 2 year	Keele		Foundations of ODP Applications of ODP		17

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Short Courses Health Related

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
Infectious Disease		Stafford	Hospital managers	Basics of control of infection	E Distance learning		15	stand alone modules (15 credits)
Short course on Epidemiology	1 day or 2 ½ days	Stafford	Public health staff	Basics of epidemiology, HIA	face-to-face or on-line		Numbers vary	ditto
Understanding mortality statistics	1 day or 2 ½ days	Stafford	Health service managers	Introduction to mortality stats	face-to-face or on-line		Numbers vary	ditto
Understanding mortality stats	½ day wrkshop	Stafford	Public health staff	Introduction to mortality stats	face-to-face or on-line		Numbers vary	ditto
Public Health Courses in the following Chronic Disease Topics: Self Monitoring of Chronic Disease Psychological aspects of Diabetes	1 day	Aston	Healthcare Professionals	The Psychology behind chronic disease management	Powerpoint presentation and discussion
Health psychology aspects of Public Health issues:	1 day	Aston	Healthcare professionals	The psychology behind public health issues <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understanding obesity • Binge drinking Screening behaviour	Powerpoint presentation and discussion
Safer Food Better Business	3 Hours	Aston	Environmental Health Officers, Caterers and anyone else with an interest in Food Safety	Training in the implementation and maintenance of SFBB, a new pack devised by the FSA, a food safety management system introduced to meet the needs of EU directive 852/2004 based on the principles of HACCP	Powerpoint presentation with a handwashing experiment
Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Points	3 Hours	Aston	Environmental Health Officers	Potential hazards associated with food and measures to control those hazards	Powerpoint presentation

NB: Validation date where given is in “course format” column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
Introduction to Microbiology	3 Hours	Aston	Environmental Health Officers	Provides an insight into the common microorganisms found in food and an understanding of their ecology. Organisms include E. coli and Salmonella	Powerpoint Presentation
Cleansing and Disinfection	3 Hours	Aston	Environmental Health Officers	Sanitation practices in food processing focussing on methods for controlling pathogenic & spoilage microorganisms	Powerpoint presentation
Bacterial Foodborne Pathogens	3 Hours	Aston	Environmental Health Officers	Foodborne pathogens are studied. It is focussed on the fundamentals of Food Microbiology and Food Safety	Powerpoint presentation
Introduction to Foodborne Viruses	3 Hours	Aston	Environmental Health Officers	Foodborne viruses that are increasingly recognised as causes of human illness are studied in this course	Powerpoint presentation
Food Mycology, Spoilage and Mycotoxins	3 Hours	Aston	Environmental Health Officers	This course explores the consequences of fungal contamination of food	Powerpoint presentation
Food Spoilage	3 Hours	Aston	Environmental Health Officers	Microorganisms and other factors responsible for food spoilage are studied	Powerpoint presentation
Principles of Food Preservation & Manufacturing	3 Hours	Aston	Environmental Health Officers	Principles of food preservation, dehydration, acidification, chemical and physical preservation and hot and cold methodology	Powerpoint presentation
Antimicrobials and Resistance	3 Hours	Aston	Environmental Health Officers	Antimicrobial drugs used to treat infections and the associated antibiotic resistance that has developed are studied	Powerpoint presentation
Food Allergies & Food Intolerance	3 Hours	Aston	Environmental Health Officers	Allergies to a variety of foods and food intolerances	Powerpoint presentation
Foodborne Parasites	3 Hours	Aston	Environmental Health Officers	Uni and multicellular parasites commonly found in food	Powerpoint presentation
Sampling and Microbiological Analysis of Food	1 Day	Aston	Environmental Health Officers	This course covers the spatial distribution of microorganisms in food, batch sampling, isolating and enumerating organisms, sample preparation and how to examine food surfaces	Powerpoint presentations, practical demonstrations and some hands on experience

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column

West Midlands Teaching Public Health Network - Course Mapping 2007

Course Title	Academic Level	HEI	Target groups	Brief summary of specialist content	Course format	Recruitment target	Number students enrolled	Unique features
Healthy Packed Lunch Workshops	2.5 hours	Gov Office	School Nurses/ Learning Support Mentors	Basic Healthy Eating Messages focused around healthier packed lunches	Theory and Practical	School nurses from each of the 14 West Midlands Local Authority Areas	216 students trained to date
Food, Nutrition and Food Hygiene Training	2 hours	Gov Office	Teachers	Basic Nutrition and Food Hygiene messages with a focus on the school setting	theory and practical session	at least 1 course in each local authority	250 teachers trained to date
Foundation Food Hygiene Certificate	6 hours	Gov Office	Teachers/School Nurses	Foundation Food Hygiene	taught course with exam	pilot	50 teachers Sandwell 10 School Nurses Warcs
Food Partnership Training	2 days	Gov Office	D and T Teaching Staff	Training to equip D and T food teachers to support primary school teachers delivering QCA's re food in the curriculum	Theory/Practical	6 courses of 15 participants at least 2 trainees from each LEA in the West Midlands
KTREC (Keele Training for Research Ethics Committees)		.Keele	Members, and administrators of Research Ethics Committees in NHS, universities and elsewhere; research ethics advisors; researchers.	Courses include content relating to ethical issues in public health research. Courses in ethics of resource allocation aimed at PCT funding and resource allocation committees also available. Bespoke sessions available by negotiation.	Courses of 1-3 days run at Keele or on client's premises. Knowledge Transfer consisting of short courses in ethics. Programmes of 1-3 days available			Largest UK provider of ethics training to Research Ethics Committees. Courses can be run anywhere in UK and Ireland.

NB: Validation date where given is in "course format" column